DO THE FAR RIGHT THING

You've ceased to be funny and I've ceased to buy your liberal rag. What ever happened to the humor upon which you built your magazine? In Mike Snider's "The Republican Party's 'Contract With America' (Truthful Post-Election Version)" piece, there wasn't a single funny word. It was purely a political statement of your liberal leanings.

John Pierre
Edmonds, WA

We're sorry for what you perceive as a lack of funny words. To remedy this oversight, we present the following panoply of funny words and encourage you to pepper your conversation with them when speaking with your Dittohead conservative friends — their sides will be aching with laughter! — forklift...canuck...uvula...spittoon...monkey juice...pneumatic...fa...sassafras...Cleveland...Dole...Gingrich...Buchanan...Dornan...Gramm...Lugar...Lamar...Zamboni! — Ed.

REVENGE OF THE NERD?

You have made fun of many things, but in issue #334 you went too far. A subtitle on the cover reads "Comic Book Fans (Geeks on Parade!)" This statement is probably the worst MAD has ever made. Comic book fans are not geeks and in fact do have a life. I myself am a comic book fan and I am not a geek, dweeb, nerd or whatever you want to call me. I hope you think more next time before you print a statement like this. You just lost yourself a subscriber!

Beau McRae
Colorado Springs, CO

We stand corrected. At no time did we mean to imply that all comic book fans are geeks, dweebs or nerds...just comic book fans named "Beau"! See ya, loser! —Ed.

THE (BAD) DREAM TEAM

The Syosset Sharks (part of the Intermediate Boy's Division of the Syosset, NY Soccer Club) relax after winning a game by donning their Alfred E. Neuman masks...just like the professional soccer teams in Europe and South America do! They don't wear the masks during games, though...if they did, they'd have a hard time deciding whether they'd rather kick the ball or each other's face!

A LAME BRAIN LETTER

When I received MAD #334 and looked at the "Frankenstein" cover, I was disappointed to find out that Alfred E. Neuman has a brain.

Robby Askew
Lawrenceville, GA

And when we received your letter, you didn't disappoint us at all! You follow? —Ed.

A DEAD LETTER

I am a loyal reader of your magazine, but as a Grateful Dead fan, I feel it necessary to point out a mistake on MAD #334's back cover, "Commemorative Music Stamps We'd Like to See." The enchanting Dead have existed for only 29 years, not 30! Previous to 1966, the same group was known as the Warlocks, and before that, Mother McCree's Uptown Jug Champions. Just thought you guys should know!

Paul Elsberg
Northbrook, IL

Paul — We appreciate your letter because most of us here are Deadheads too! Most of us, that is, except Assistant Editor Andrew J. Schwartzberg, the person who did the research for our stamp article. We've been having trouble with Schwartzberg lately and your letter wasn't the first we've received. Yours proved to be the breaking point, however, and we had no alternative but to let him go. Sure, we've joked about this in the past, but Schwartzberg is such a slacker and layabout, this time we mean it! Just check the next issue's masthead and see if you can find him! He's history! —Ed.

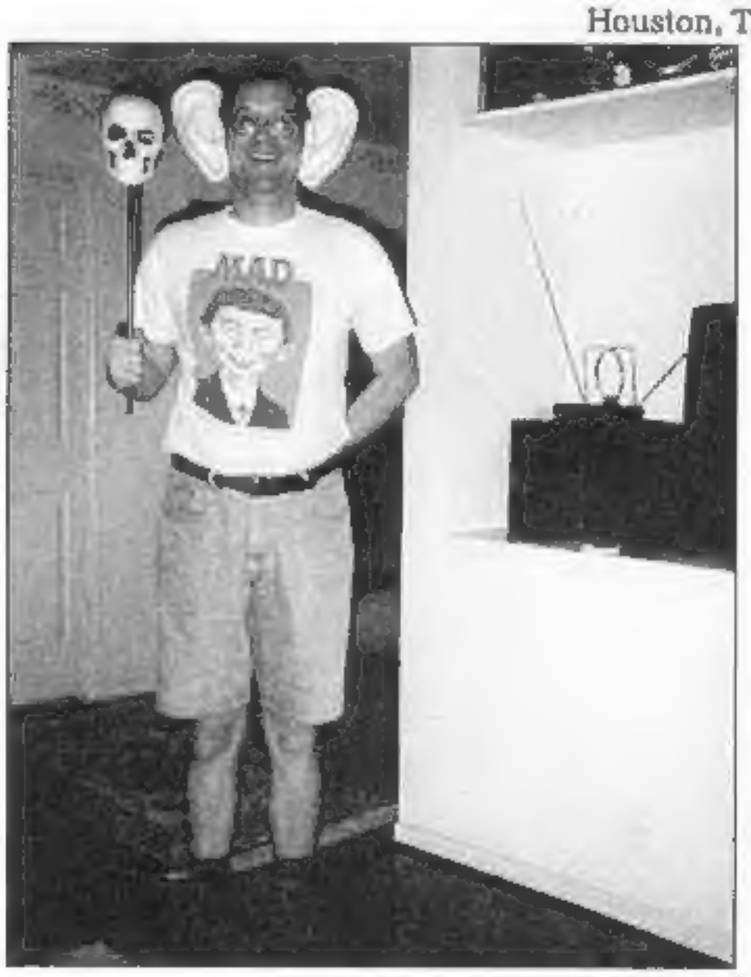
TOMATOES DEPARTMENT

DAD AGAIN

My father has been reading your magazine for 35 years. This is what he looks like now!

Alex LeBuffe
Houston, TX



Man, oh man, we bet you can't wait for Parent's Night at school! Trust us, when Jenny Jones sees this photo, you're going to get the call! Oh, and say hi to everyone at the trailer park! —Ed.

FUN WITH GUNS

Having lost a family member myself to senseless gun violence, I look at the NRA as a group that is not protecting people's rights but violating people's right to life. It is simple mathematics. Each of the following countries except the U.S.A. has very tough gun control legislation:

Country	1992 handgun deaths
Australia	13
England	33
Sweden	36
Japan	60
U.S.A.	13,220

2+2=4...Guns+people=death.

Thomas Sposato
St. James, NY

Tommy Boy — The figures you quote make perfect sense to us! All except one, that is... are you sure 2+2=4?? —Ed.

Why do we believe the anti-gun groups who say banning firearms will make us safer, when the overwhelming majority of crimes are committed with guns that were not legally purchased in the first place! Violent crime in Washington, D.C. tripled after "carrying" was made illegal and only the bad guys had guns. The places with the strictest gun laws (New York City and Washington, D.C.) are horrifyingly more violent then Montpelier, VT, with the most lenient gun laws!

Frieda L. Weber
Ft. Edward, NY

New York and D.C. horrifyingly more violent? Your letter is not without merit. The thought of living in Montpelier, VT, however, makes us want to put a gun to our head, so it kind of evens out! —Ed.

GETTING TOO CAREYED AWAY DEPT.

The place: Gotham City. The time: dusk. As the sun sets over the vast cityscape, the denizens of the underworld go into action. Their mission is to commit heinous crimes against the state, destroy the fabric of society, and do battle with a friggin' pansy wearing latex pants, a long-flowing cape and a sweaty leather mask! Yup, if we've seen this once we've seen this three times. There's nothing new about...

BUTTMAN

I can't believe Brute Lame wouldn't help me mass produce my invention! He said it was too much like a mind control device, but he's wrong! And if I can get my device on him, I'll use it to control his mind! My virtual reality invention makes things seem so real! I feel like I'm really at a circus! It even smells bad! I better be careful not to step in any virtual reality elephant dung!

The Children's Hospital profusely thanks Brute Lame for his generous contribution of one million dollars! Unfortunately, to celebrate his donation we spent one million five hundred thousand on this stupid circus spectacular, so the orphans get screwed again!

The circus! I love it! It's fun for kids of all ages!

The circus! I hate it! I can't wait for someone to get killed!

How do they fit so many clowns in that tiny car?

The bigger question is — how do they fit so many clowns with machine guns in that tiny car?

I never liked clowns when I was a kid! Now I finally understand why! They kill people! Look at them shooting the people in the audience! The humor in this situation escapes me!

Oh, I don't know! Pulp Fiction played violence for laughs and won a lot of awards!

FERSHLUGGINER

Let me tell you a little bit about myself, Brute! I'm Dr. Chaste Maiden! I specialize in dual personalities and abnormal psychology!

That's quite a pair!

I'm glad you noticed! But let's stick to abnormal psychology, shall we? Did you notice that odd man with two faces over there? He has the ultimate split personality!

That odd man is Dual Puss! He used to be District Attorney, but he left public office to pursue a life of crime!

Oh, really? Well that seems pretty bizarre!

I'll say! Most District Attorneys pursue a life of crime while in office! That way they don't have to give up their hospitalization and pension plans!

FRANKS

POP

Hot Dogs, $7! Ice cold soda, $5!

Do you hear the prices on that stuff? There's more than one hold-up going on here!

DRUCKER

Isn't that cute! The Flying Gravestones are trying to dismantle my megaton TNT bomb! I admire their bravery!

Those $%^& acrobats are trying to dismantle my bomb! They're also about to change from the Flying Gravestones to the Dying Gravestones! Shoot 'em down, boys and get this hold-up underway!

He talks out of both sides of his mouth! He must be Dual Puss... or Newt Gingrich!

I can't look! Those trapeze artists are going to fall to their deaths!

You better look! It cost me $300 to get seats this close to the action!

I saved quite a few lives by hurling Dual Puss's bomb into the river! Unfortunately, I have no way of knowing how many tourists died on the Circle Line boat it sank!

BOOM!

You're a hero, Dork! Your parents must be proud of you!

My parents are dead! Remember? They were shot down from their high wires last night by Dual Puss and his men!

Yes, but all the way down to the ground, I bet they were thinking — "our son is really brave" — right up to the splat, that is!

Where would you like to sleep, Dork? This place has 37 bedrooms, but quite frankly, mine has the most comfortable bed!

Thanks, but this is only our first date!

And since you like spandex and capes, you won't believe your eyes when you see the Butt-wardrobe! It's massive! And talk about mirrors...

Okay Smoothie, you've got yourself a roomie! That "man to man" talk about kinky clothes convinced me!

There's another neat thing about staying here! My bedroom is the perfect place to have revealing, recurring nightmares! Especially about dead parents!

Just what I need! I'm definitely staying!

Neuman, I had one of those dreams again!

It's no problem, sir! I'll wash the sheets again!

No, not those dreams, Neuman! The other dreams about bats and my family! I think there's some obscure connection!

Obscure connection? Unarmed, your family tried to stop a gang of thugs toting machine guns! Your family was bats...sir!

I don't know if I became Buttman to fight crime, or to fight the fear of crime! Because fearing fighting crime can be more fearful than fighting the crime itself, or the fear! It's deep, I know!

It's so deep I need the ButtShovel! But first, this note came for you: "Puzzle me this: If Michael Keaton turned down ten million dollars to play Buttman in this movie — what did he know that you didn't? Signed, the Piddler"!

First Siskel, then Ebert, now him! Is everybody a critic?

How come you respond so quickly when the police send the Butt-Signal?

I'd like to see you try to sleep when someone shines a fifty million watt spotlight in your bedroom window!

Actually, I sent the signal! I'm quite attracted to your ButtCape, your ButtTights and your ButtMask! I'd kiss you, but I'm not attracted to your ButtBreath! Yuck!

We have a really sicko-wacko-creepo murderer on the loose!

Leave the diagnoses to the profes-sionals, like me!

His latest note says: "Puzzle me this: Why is the part of a renowned psychologist played with so much flesh uncovered? Is it to cover-up bad acting?

I hope you catch that really sicko-wacko-creepo murderer — and fast!

I want you to take this made-in-Taiwan dream doll! It's truly unique! It's the only doll that wasn't made by Mattel! She stands sentry while you sleep and she'll help end your nightmares!

How much air does she take?

Air?

Yes! Every doll I've ever owned is inflatable!

A stick up! It can't be! We are Got'em's finest citizens!

Okay then, it's not a stick up! Think of it as a redistri-bution of your wealth!

I hate to say it, but this is the first time I've been at the opera and didn't fall asleep!

Has Buttman lost his touch? Where is he while the city is under siege? And help, I'm being robbed!

Prepare the ButtMobile, Neuman, I'm going into Got'em!

The ButtMobile is prepared and it's already in Got'em!

You're very efficient, Neuman, but I think that's too efficient! How did the ButtMobile get to town without me?

Master Gravestone took it, sir! As you can see, I tried to stop him!

Can we assume that everybody who attended the Last Supper sat on the same side of the table to allow an artist to paint them?

It puzzles me: How come Buttman always comes crashing through the ceilings or windows! He never walks through a door!

If you dressed like that would you walk in through a door?

Hey! Another fight scene, right on time!

You bet! They have one every 20 minutes to keep up the energy level of the film!

Those villains won't get away with this! I pull on my ButtBelt and —

Your ButtTights fall down to reveal your ButtBriefs!

I can't get the hang of this new outfit! One of these buckles has a rocket launcher! No, that one releases my garters — Neuman should label all this!

I'll chase the thugs while you work out the kinks in your ButtSuit! Be careful what you pull out next!

The crooks escaped into the desolate subway station! It's so musty — when do you think it was last used?

It's never been used! It's still being built! It's 53 years behind schedule, meaning it's your typical city contract being built at tax-payers expense!

There goes Dual Puss at 20 miles-per-hour on a jury-rigged skateboard! We've got to stop him!

Relax, Buttman! The express train is coming toward him from the opposite direction at 50 miles-per-hour! He's going to get a free transfer...to the graveyard!

Dual Puss welded his fate on the third rail! Now we have to get rid of that other dog, the Piddler! This is Paw Island, his headquarters! Any idea of how to trap him?

I already did!

Did you use the ButtBoat? The Butt-Plane? A ButtBomb?

No! I used his own methods! I riddled him this: How come the first Buttman movie needed only one villain, but this one, like the second one, needs two? Does it take two mediocre actors to equal one Jack Nicholson? He went crazy trying to figure it out! He's locked up at the asylum!

We make a good team, don't we Buttman?

Yes, we do!

Then I think you're going to love the new Butt-Signal I devised!

Nice Robin, but in these days of ultra right-wingers, maybe it's best if we keep our little secret tucked away in the deep dark recesses of the ButtCave!

If there's an especially hot place in hell, surely it is reserved for the numbskull idiot morons who write assembly instructions. Whether you're trying to put together a child's toy, an exercise bike or storage bin, if there's a way to make the instructions impossible to understand, these beanhead writers do it with ambiguous terms, technical jargon and meaningless phrases. (Then again, maybe all these instructions are clear and it's just the entire population of the planet that is "mechanically challenged".) Nah, it's them! And we wish them a pox on their house as we present. . .

RumbaFlex 2000

"Now You're In Control"

Dear Consumer:

By purchasing the RumbaFlex 2000 you have chosen the finest, and shown you're a smart consumer. The RumbaFlex 2000 will give you years of trouble-free operation and user satisfaction. In fact, with proper maintenance you will probably never have to replace your RumbaFlex 2000.

With the RumbaFlex 2000, quality and durability are designed right in. And with our patented "snap-to" assembly, you'll be enjoying your RumbaFlex 2000 in minutes. The following simple instructions will show you how to assemble, operate and maintain your new RumbaFlex 2000.

If you're a first time Rumba user, welcome to the exciting world of Rumba products. If you're one of our loyal customers, you will find the 2000 Series much easier to assemble (No tube inserts or daubing necessary!) and less irritating to use indoors (No more messy sponges or awkward harnesses!) than the old 1000 Series or chain-driven Rumba products. Say goodbye to the annoying grit. Say goodbye to the fuzz and drip. And say hello to that supple, saucy satisfaction.

Enjoy! With the new RumbaFlex 2000, you're in control!

ARTIST: MALINDA DUNN WRITER: JIM BARTON

ASSEMBLY "Save Some Biscuits For Me!"

Practically everything you need to assemble the RumbaFlex 2000 is included. The only additional supplies you'll need are a putty knife, a 14" orbital band saw, cotton or cheesecloth buffing mitts, a ceramic rabbit or other clamping device, a standard set of metric socket wrenches and 48oz. of luke-warm pudding.

You'll see the difference in the new RumbaFlex 2000 before you've even used it. That's because we've made assembly so easy.

The following is a list of the parts included in your RumbaFlex 2000 package:

When assembling your RumbaFlex 2000, it is best to dress comfortably and avoid wearing fragrances. Also, to avoid tripping or stumbling during assembly, never wear shoes with tassels, festoons or jutting, beak-like appendages. By following these few simple steps, you will be able to quickly and easily assemble your RumbaFlex 2000, and start enjoying it right away. Here at Rumba Products, Inc., we like to say, "Rumba is so easy, and moist too!" ENJOY!

1) On a clean, dry surface, arrange all RumbaFlex 2000 parts in a sweeping floral pattern, making sure to weed out any with defective gaskets or pungent odors.

2) Attach all core grids, chassis, frames, bars, joists, blades and scoops using wood screws and epoxy. Soak all connections and joints in a zesty tomato-based [redacted].

3) Join all valves, fuses, clamps, sockets and shafts with your choice of nuts and straps.

4) Insert all probes. (Keep that chamois cloth coming!)

5) Firmly attach housing and casing by wrapping flexi-fins around U-shaped nugget lugs and crimping with your custom needle-nose "nipping grips." This is especially important for those who will be using the RumbaFlex 2000 in humid climates, during street festivals or near fishing rodeos.

6) Finally, add decorative accessories and sporty detailing. Make your RumbaFlex 2000 a reflection of your personality—racy, reserved, bright, cheerful, morose, wacky, laconic, bloated, unctuous — whatever you like! Remember...now you're in control!

OPERATION "Just Like Salsa...Only Square!"

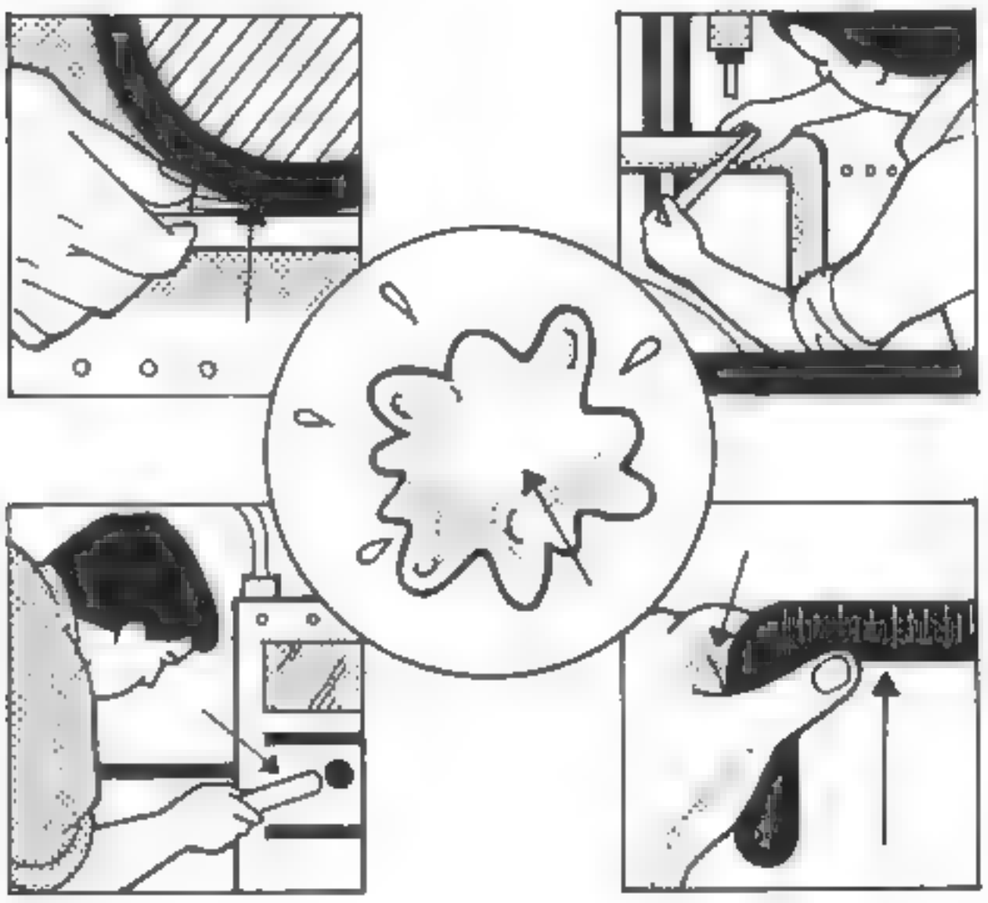
Your new RumbaFlex 2000 is so easy to operate, you'll think you've just flossed. But don't worry, it's the Rumba way!



1) Start your RumbaFlex 2000 by turning the ignition key and pedaling the choke roller. On cold or cloudy mornings you may experience some hesitation or sputtering in the RumbaFlex 2000 ignition mechanism. Don't worry! Unless there's a prurient discharge, a simple shim insertion beneath the sprocket reel will restore instant starting.

2) Before engaging the RumbaFlex 2000's forward rotary units or siphon puffs (They look harmless, but have you ever had a head hickey?), make sure you have secured the colorful bunting and tightened all tarpaulin lines. (Remember, Rumba's not just a name anymore! Rumba! Rumba!)

3) Choose your operation and target coordinates. It's important to choose the operation first, before selecting target coordinates. You'll avoid messy and costly mistakes, clean-up will be easier and you'll escape the itch and swelling.

4) During operation, keep a firm grip on all backhoe levers, without neglecting the deli meats. With the RumbaFlex 2000, you no longer have to choose between a fresh hoagie and a tingling scalp. Remember, you've chosen the best. You've chosen Rumba!

5) Once you've finished the job, it's easy to secure and store your RumbaFlex 2000 for future "Rumba Tasks"! Simply fold the juice flumes back over the cabin shelves (Don't worry! The snaps are there!), zip up the forward dickey crispers, and spread a little "Hasty-Jam" paste across the injection nodes.

And that's it! Your RumbaFlex 2000 is safely stored and protected, ready to once again serve all your Rumba needs.

MAINTENANCE "Never Too Tight! Never Too Thick!"

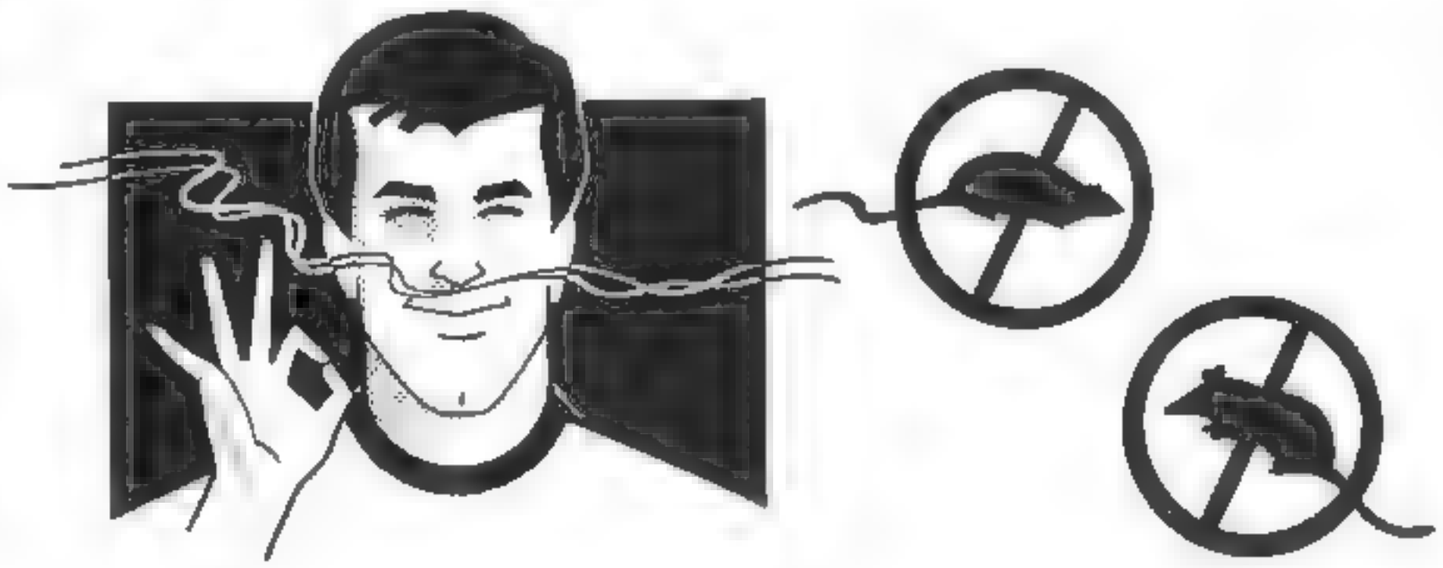
The RumbaFlex 2000 practically takes care of itself. And with its new "Auto-Whisk" mechanism, you'll never have to spackle again. Just make sure to follow these simple steps on a regular basis, and your new RumbaFlex will give you years and years of trouble-free operation.

1) Buff all towels at least every three weeks. You'll feel better. Your RumbaFlex 2000 will cover more ground. 2) Keep the pistons and shafts free of lint, butter and aloe build-up. This can cause sticking and chin irritation, resulting in stunted horizontal threshing. 3) Remember to flush the tubes and valves with our special "Rumba-Wash" lubricating pepper gel. This ensures firm suction and cutting motion as smooth as toast. 4) When storing your RumbaFlex 2000, be sure to place all protective cushion-boots on the external probes and blades. Also, the snack basket and steam press should be covered to prevent rust, deterioration and grass stains. 5) Remove all beef slabs and used ointment applicators from the overhead compartment. Your RumbaFlex 2000 will smell better, and rats and opossum will stay away.



The most important thing to remember about maintaining your new RumbaFlex is to relax. We've designed durability and flexibility right in. Plus, your Rumba service representative is as close as your telephone. Just call us up and say, "It's a Rumba day! And moist too!"

TROUBLESHOOTING "Pop If It's Blue!"

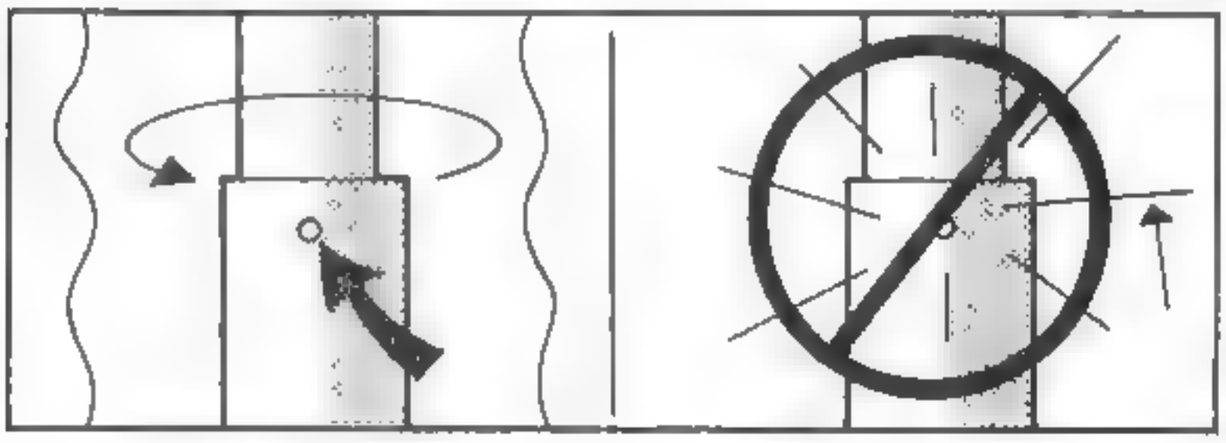
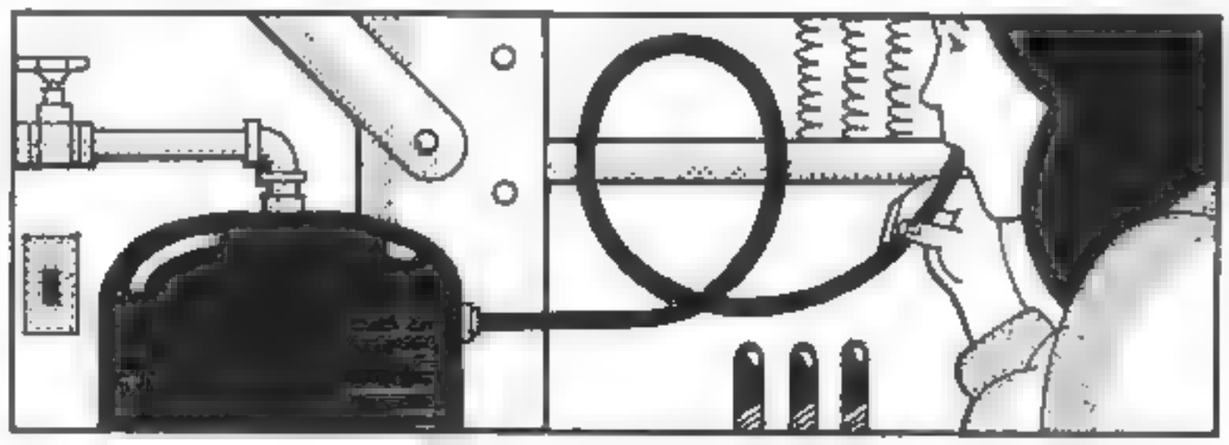
You may experience some slight initial malfunctions or operational interruptions in your new RumbaFlex 2000. Don't worry! This is normal. Any mechanism as sensitive and complex as the RumbaFlex 2000 will experience "growing pains" as its electronics and components adjust to start-up performance and your particular user environment.

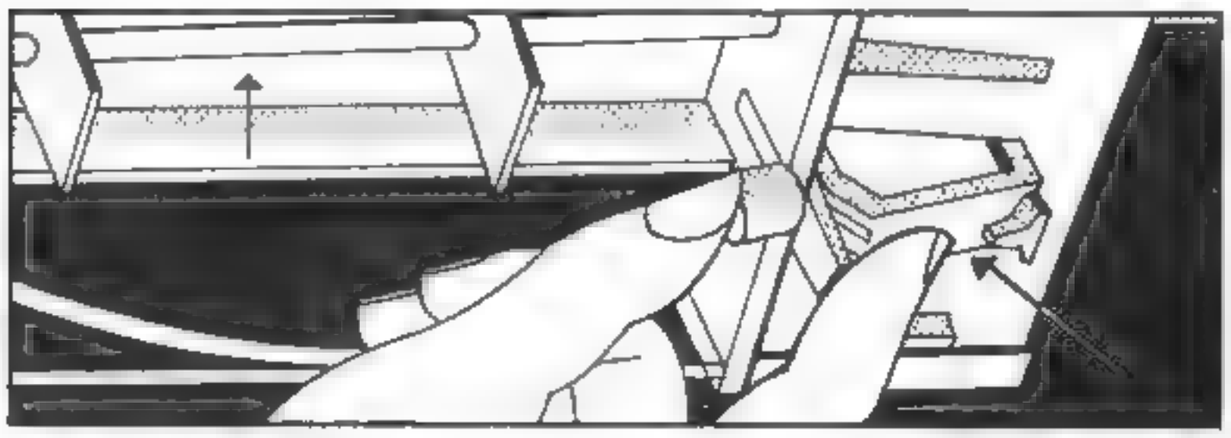
To make this breaking-in period less troublesome, here are a few troubleshooting pointers:



1) A low wheezing or grinding sound in the piston buffers means there is not enough silicone putty reaching the auger bits. This is easily remedied by wedging a set of wooden soup spoons between your upper thighs during use.

2) If you experience excessive horizontal vibration when switching the vinyl chipper into mulch mode, simply shift the timing sprockets two notches toward the "stick-a-sturdy" floor struts, dash a liberal amount of McComb's "SuperSalve" grooming paste on the AZ34 gel receptacle, and continue normal operation. If vibration persists, the problem could rest in the jacketed solvent seal, in which case you're screwed.





3) When using your new RumbaFlex 2000 to bore through masonry or prepare tuna side dishes, you may notice a slight burning sensation in the pelvic region. If you find this objectionable, tighten the bypass enclosure that leads from your fabric dip tanks to the bobber bins. This should quickly ease the pressure and flush out all harsh poultry residues. Say cheese!

WARNING!

Your new RumbaFlex 2000 is equipped with numerous multi-level, redundant safety systems to prevent personal injuries and foul odors. However, use of the RumbaFlex 2000 as a recreational vehicle, hygiene supplement or decorative centerpiece is extremely dangerous and strongly discouraged. Rumba, Inc. assumes no responsibility for any results or consequences stemming from such use.

Does the Lone Ranger have a mask without any eye-holes for when he's asleep?

An old riddle goes , "What has three teeth, an I.Q. of 30 and drools a lot?" Answer: "the first row of fans at a wrestling match!" We at MAD think this is highly unfair to the legions of "squared circle" aficionados who pay their hard earned money to watch overweight, sweaty guys pretend to maim and cripple each other. It takes a special kind of individual to appreciate the beauty and grace in such stupid violence. Clearly, these devoted ring rooters have their own twisted perspective, as you'll see in...

Why is it when your hair falls out, you can't put it under your pillow and get five bucks from the Hair Fairy?

There are some things that men do that women just can't fathom. No matter how lost he is, no matter how many wrong turns he makes, a man behind the wheel will never pull over and ask for assistance. Women think this is because men are pig-headed macho morons. ARTIST AND WRITER: PAUL PETER PORGES

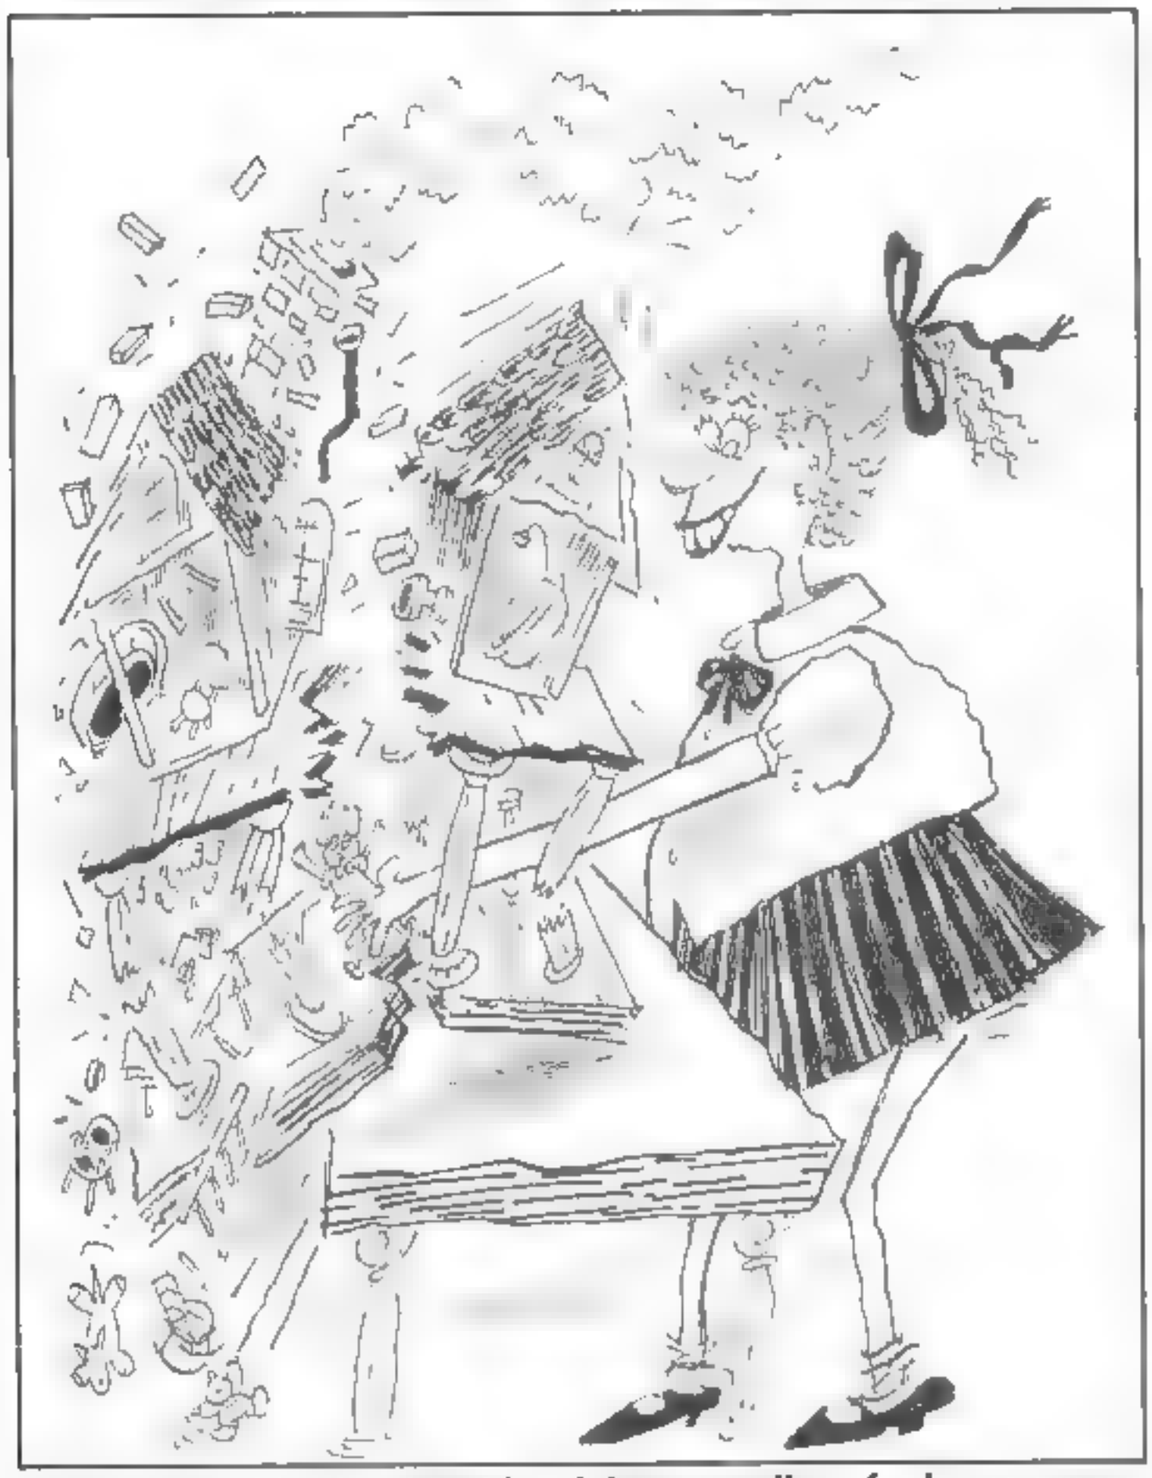
San Andreas Fault Doll House



Amaze your friends with this miniature replica of a house precariously situated on the edge of a genuine tectonic plate! Watch the house shake (and maybe even collapse!) at flick of mini-earthquake simulator switch. Live wires produce realistic sparks and miniature dolls emit shrieks of fear. Structural damage guaranteed! Mini-Richter scale sold separately.

Little Miss Marcia Clark Outfit

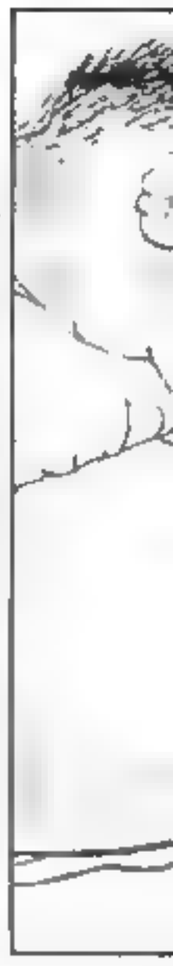
For little girls everywhere who want to dress up like America's District Attorney Sweetheart! Includes no-nonsense, ever-so-slightly above the knee skirt, top-buttoned blouse, spiffy leather briefcase and an impressive supply of search warrants and signed subpoenas. Perfect for youngsters who love law enforcement or Court TV.

Munici-opoly (Bankruptcy Board Game)

This inventive updating of the classic Monopoly Board Game mirrors today's woeful economic climate. Designed by high-ranking politicos in Orange County, California, the game accommodates four to six players who choose from junkbonds, high risk securities, derivatives and unsecured loans to force their opponents into Chapter 11, or hilarious receivership! The game ends when public services are shut down, everyone is laid off, and City Hall is auctioned away to the highest foreign nation bidder.

Mr. Tofu Head

With the rising awareness of high infant cholesterol and teenage obesity, Mr. Tofu Head introduces youngsters to the wacky and fun world of nutrition. The first whole food Soy-toy, this lovable character provides hours of companionship and a well balanced meal to boot (when served with grains, vegetables, cheese, bread and fish)! Warning: Plastic accessories are not digestible, but often taste better than Mr. Tofu Head himself.



Grounded Commuter Plane Set

This working model of the American Eagle comes complete with a dangerous build-up of ice on its wings. Engine sputters and emits smoke, just like the real thing! Comes complete with hand-operated foam dispenser for dousing pesky blazes. Emergency crew with police cars, fire trucks and incinerated victims sold separately.

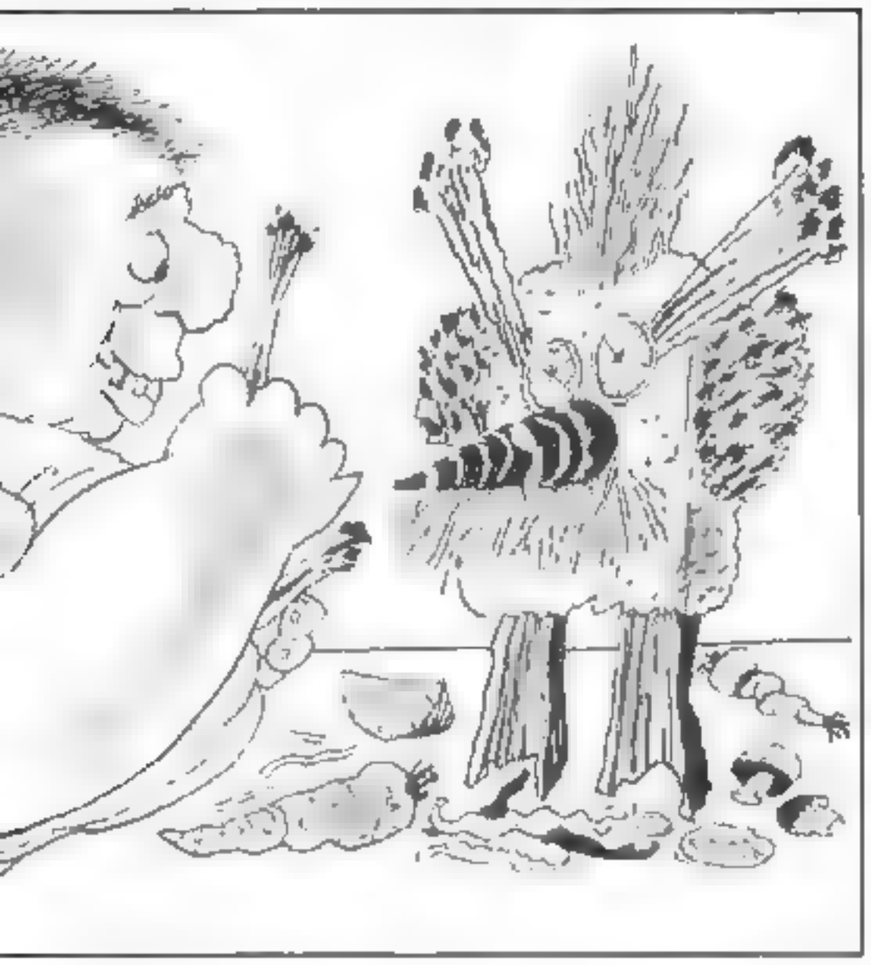
Refugee Log Camp Construction Model

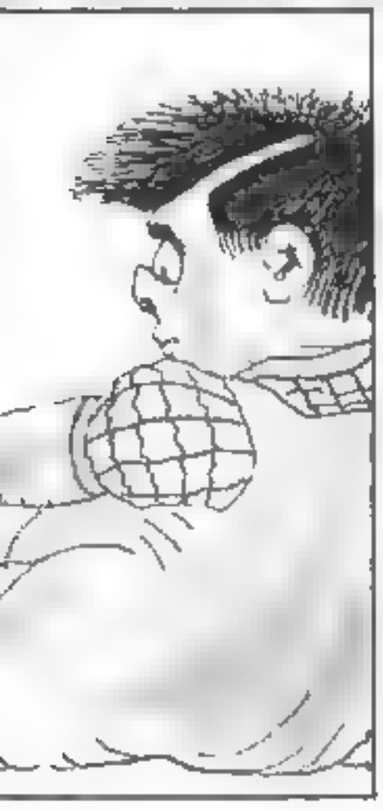
Fully equipped with ineffectual U.N. peacekeeping soldiers, powerless international observers and overwhelmed relief workers, Refugee Log Camp can be quickly assembled and torn down for easy relocation pending border disputes. Additional convoys of medical supplies, food and blankets can be ordered, though there's no guarantee they'll ever arrive.



Super-Powered Newtman

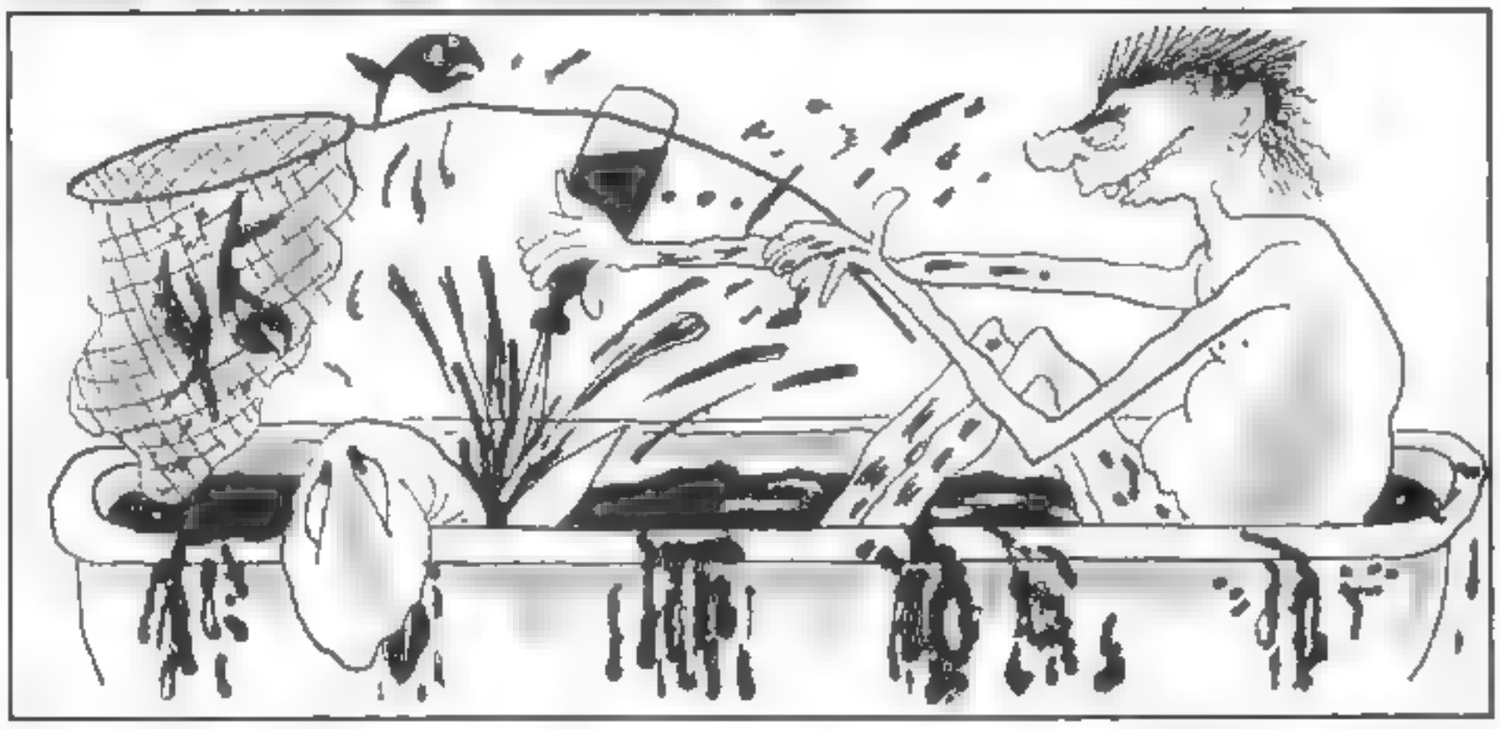
The novelty toy of the year, perfect for right wing toddlers! Newtman comes fully assembled with moveable legs ready to kick the daylights out of Democrats, A.C.L.U. lawyers, welfare recipients, unwed mothers and "counter-culturalists." A great gift for any child who hopes to one day pray in school. Additional Congressmen may be bought cheaply.

h Hostile Virus



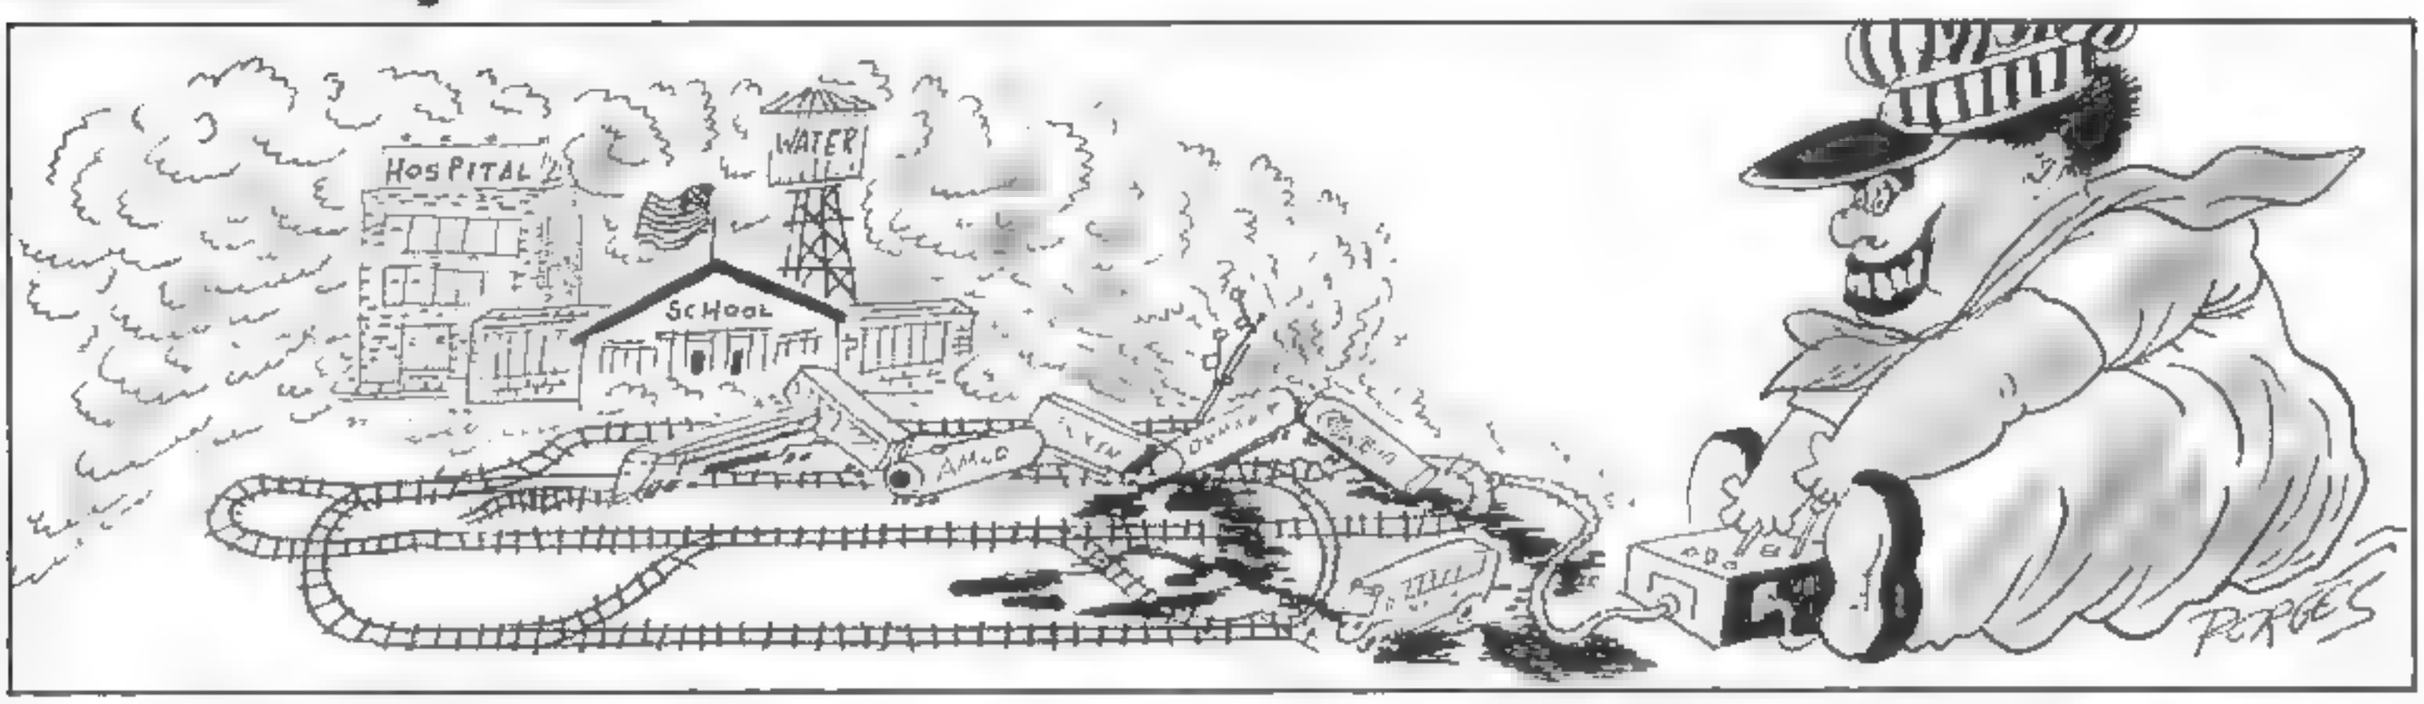
Programmed with the latest versions of DOS and Windows, this state of the art machine is designed to prepare children for the frustrating, impersonal, glitch-filled world of computers. This system is guaranteed to malfunction in a variety of unexpected ways, including lengthy periods of down time, keyboard lock and mysterious beeping noises. Guaranteed to crash in six months or your money back!

Eco-Disaster Bathtub Kit



Turn your bathtub into a horribly polluted mini-ocean by creating your own environmental calamities, including Industrial Oil Spill and Tuna-Net Fishing Catastrophe. Deluxe kit includes remote control, foot-long fishing boat /oil tanker which leaks at the push of a button, realistic models of oil-drenched ducks, otters and other innocent sea creatures, plus fishermen's net filled with trapped rubber dolphins.

Derailed Toy Train



This is the next best thing to actually riding Amtrak! Frozen and faulty switches guarantee train will jump track and cause massive destruction seconds after it starts. School buses provided to stage tragic crashes at unguarded crossings.

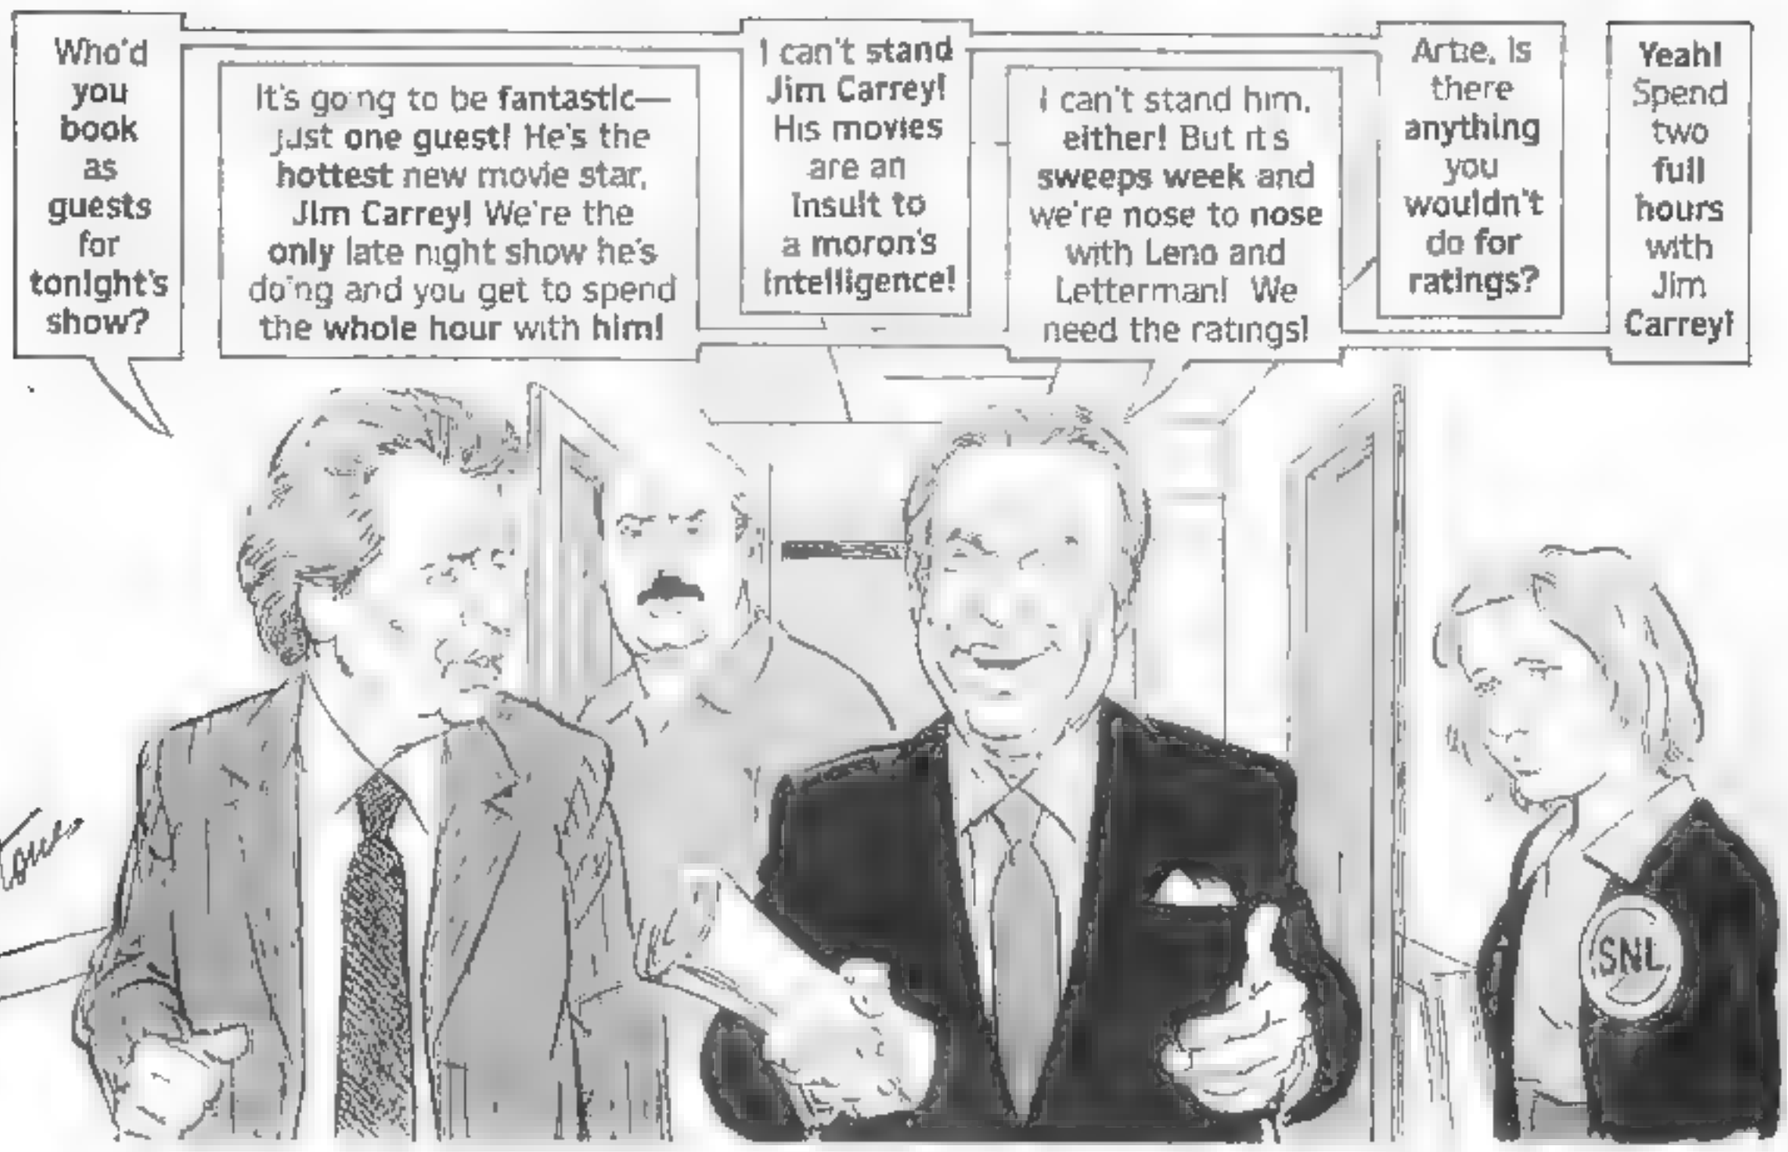
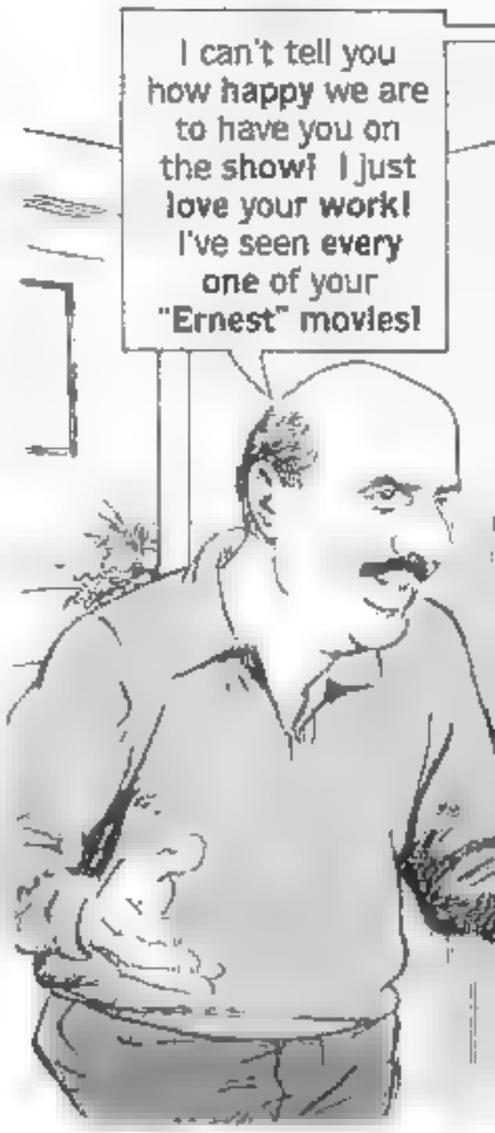
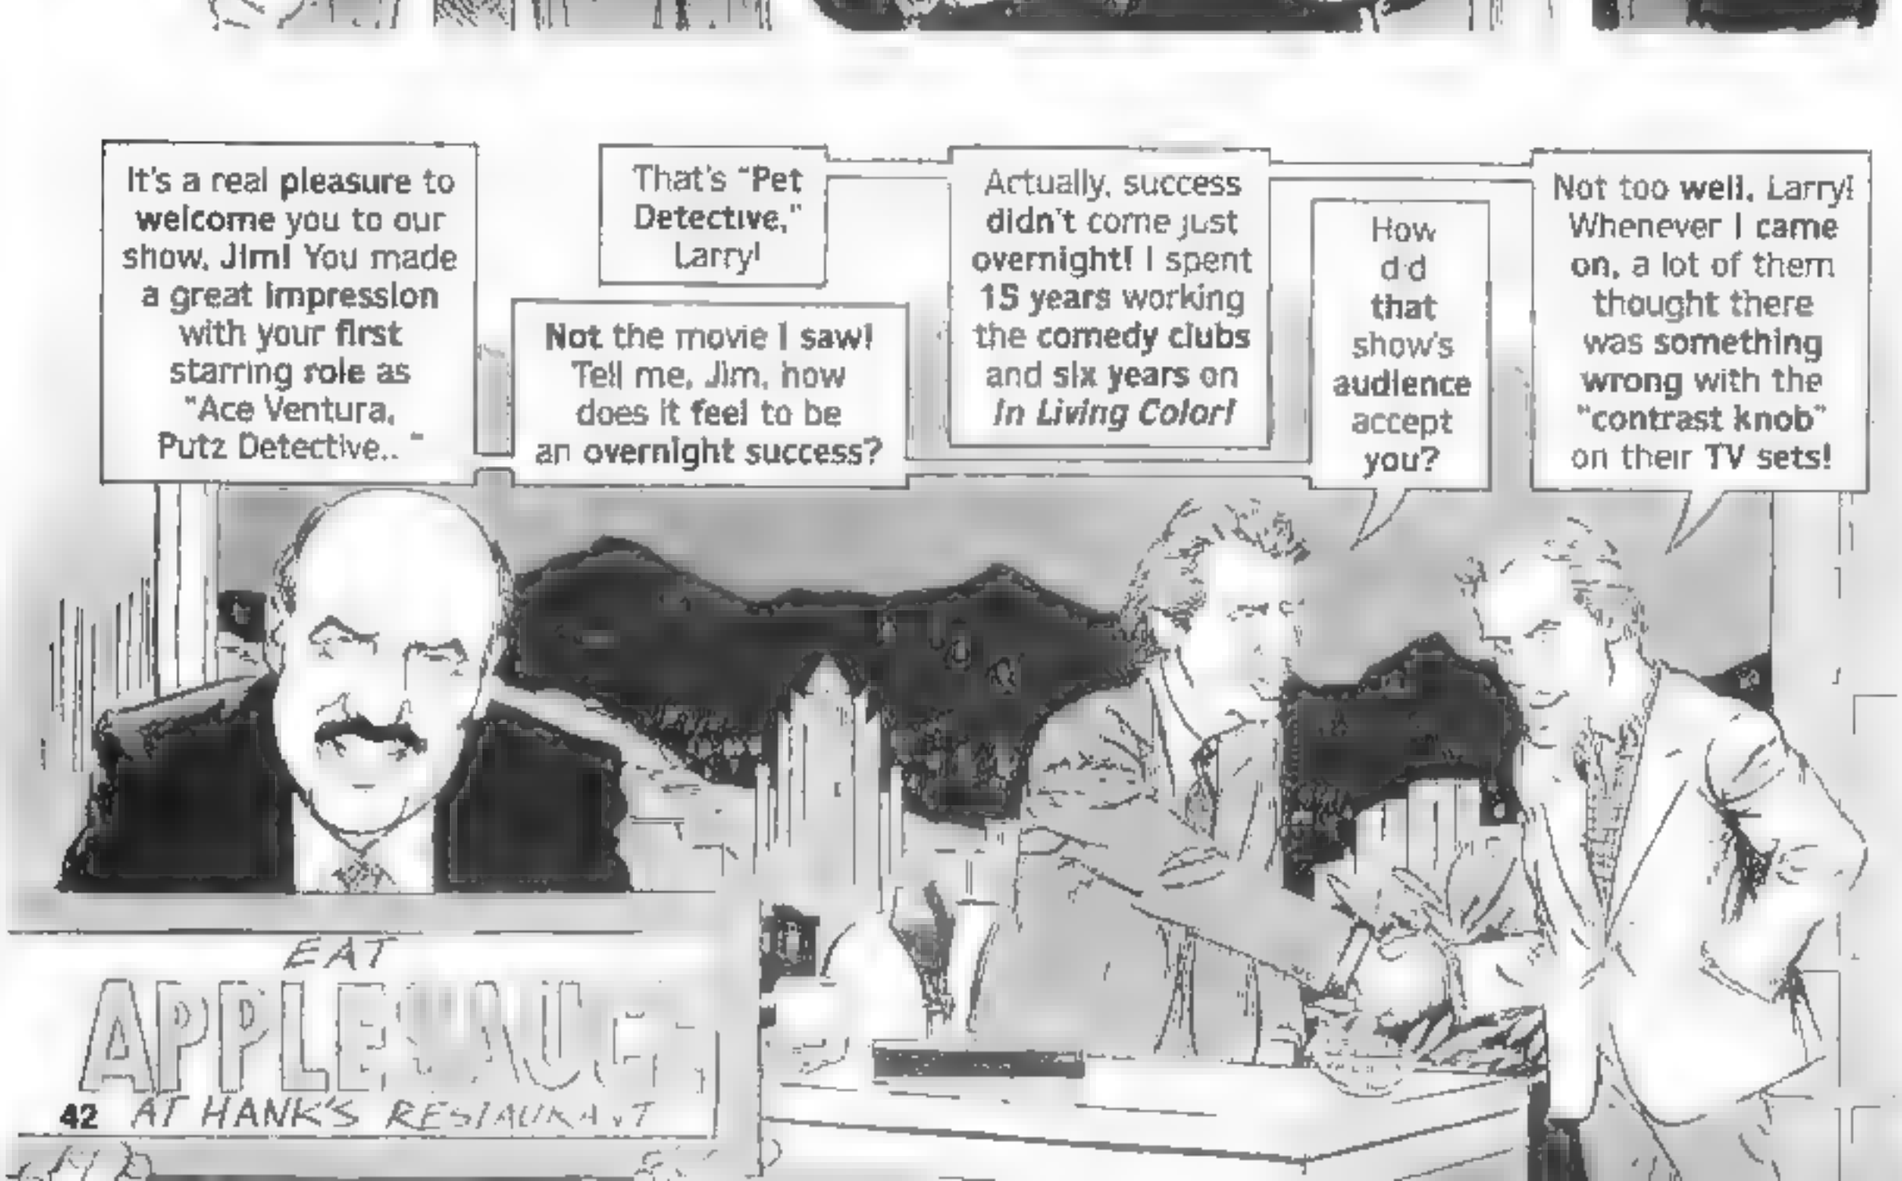
Visits THE LARRY



Who'd you book as guests for tonight's show?
It's going to be fantastic—just one guest! He's the hottest new movie star, Jim Carrey! We're the only late night show he's doing and you get to spend the whole hour with him!
I can't stand Jim Carrey! His movies are an insult to a moron's intelligence!
I can't stand him, either! But it's sweeps week and we're nose to nose with Leno and Letterman! We need the ratings!
Arbe, is there anything you wouldn't do for ratings?
Yeah! Spend two full hours with Jim Carrey!
SNL





It's a real pleasure to welcome you to our show, Jim! You made a great impression with your first starring role as "Ace Ventura, Putz Detective.."
That's "Pet Detective," Larry!
Not the movie I saw! Tell me, Jim, how does it feel to be an overnight success?
Actually, success didn't come just overnight! I spent 15 years working the comedy clubs and six years on In Living Color!
How did that show's audience accept you?
Not too well, Larry! Whenever I came on, a lot of them thought there was something wrong with the "contrast knob" on their TV sets!

You're thinking of Jim Varney, you bung-hole!
Er, ah, just kidding! You'll get used to my dry sense of humor! It keeps the Sanders Show going! Without me, Larry would be up to his knees in ca-ca!
And with you, it just reaches up to his ankles!

I think you're a riot, Mr. Carrey! Those grotesque faces you make are not to be believed!
Oh, you saw me in The Mask ?
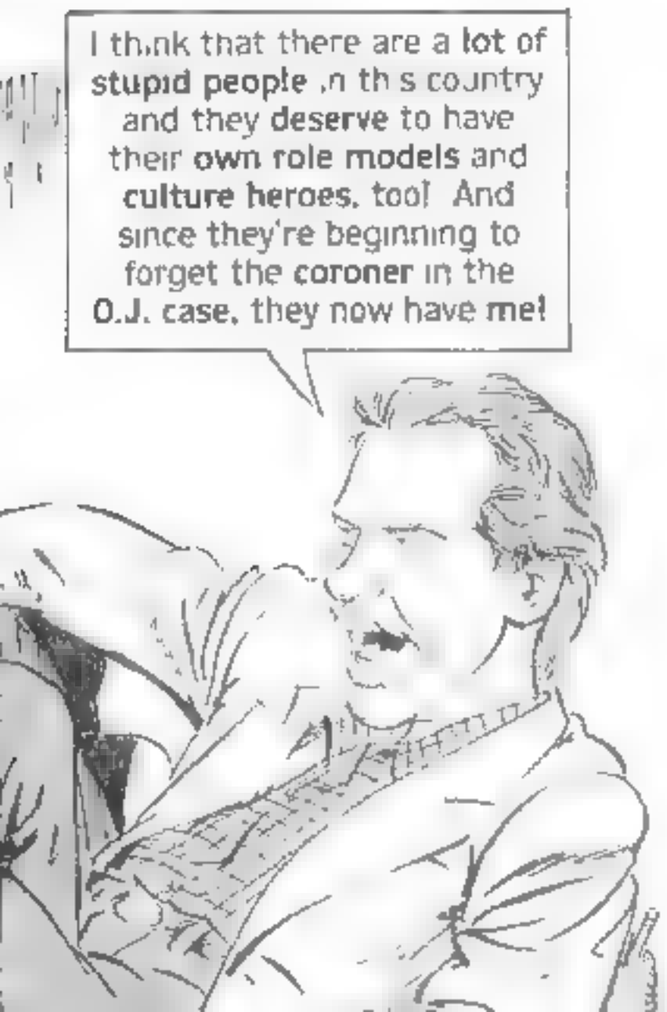
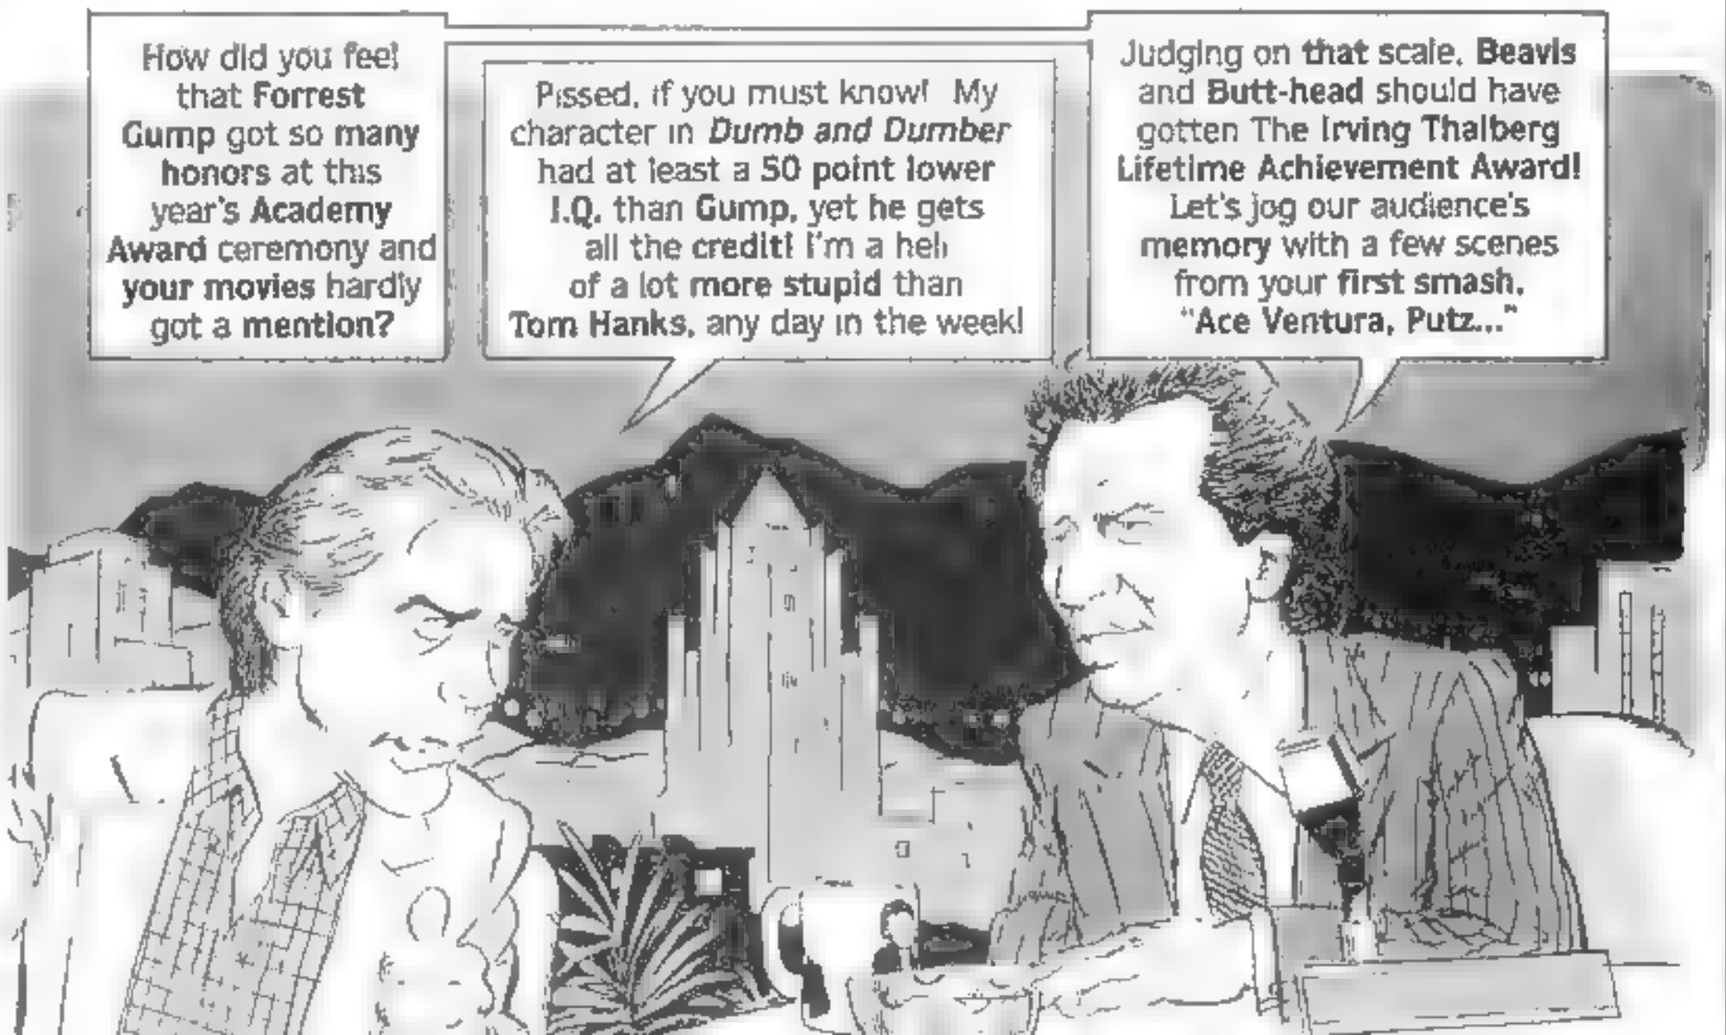
No! I was watching you eat your lunch in the cafeteria!
STOLEN FROM ENO



I think that there are a lot of stupid people in this country and they deserve to have their own role models and culture heroes, too! And since they're beginning to forget the coroner in the O.J. case, they now have me!



How did you feel that Forrest Gump got so many honors at this year's Academy Award ceremony and your movies hardly got a mention?
Pissed, if you must know! My character in Dumb and Dumber had at least a 50 point lower I.Q. than Gump, yet he gets all the credit! I'm a hell of a lot more stupid than Tom Hanks, any day in the week!
Judging on that scale, Beavis and Butt-head should have gotten The Irving Thalberg Lifetime Achievement Award! Let's jog our audience's memory with a few scenes from your first smash, "Ace Ventura, Putz..."

I'm the owner of the Miami Dolphins football team! A large, dumb animal we've kept for years has been kidnapped!

You mean someone's snatched Dan Marino?

No! Not that dumb! I'm talking about our mascot, the pet dolphin!

Why did Warners ever produce such idiotic garbage?

You've got so many animals in your home!

Oh, they're a lot more than just animals to me!

You mean to say they're your friends?

Not exactly! My friends hardly ever crap all over my carpets!

It's part of their tradition! They also publish People and MAD magazines!

Maybe some of our Miami teenagers mistook the dolphin for a foreign tourist and shot him!

Why is he trying to look up your skirt?

The moron thinks that I'm Sharon Stone!

No way she's Sharon Stone! This one's wearing underwear!

Talking about Sharon Stone, I had an affair with her when she was on this show! But it couldn't last because it was one of those "love-hate" relationships, if you know what I mean...

I do! I can see why you must have loved it and she must have hated it!

HEY, NOW!

STOLEN FROM THE LATE SHOW

So, did Ace crack the case?

Well, yes and no! He did find a team mascot! Unfortunately, it was the mascot of the Detroit Lions!

What a bomb! I guess the important thing is what this movie did for your popularity!

Not really! The best thing was what it did for my sex life! I got to do a sex scene with Courtney Cox!

You got seven million dollars for Dumb and Dumber, but Arnold Schwarzenegger got twice as much for being in True Lies! How did you feel about that?

It made sense! If you watch Arnold try to act and speak English, you'd realize that he's twice as funny as I am!

I am da lucklesht man alive! My wife, Maria ish a fox unt I am big and shtrong!

If Ted Turner colorizes the movie "Bela Lugosi Meets A Brooklyn Gorilla," will people say he ruined it?

We've got to break for a commercial! Be right back! No clicking!

How do you think it's going, Hank?

Great! Just one thing! Bring me into the conversation a little more! The audience loves that!

Forget that schmuck, Jim! Don't pay attention to Hank during the show! If the audience was interested in anything Hank had to say, he'd be sitting where Larry is and Larry would be on the couch with you! Be show-wise, know what I mean?

We're back! So, Jim, after Ace Ventura your next film, The Mask made over $120 million! It's a movie about someone who turns himself into a clownish, cartoon character!

I guess you could call it a fantasy!

In your case, I'm not so sure! Let's see a few clips from the film!

That looks like someone floating down there! I've got to jump in and save him!

I may be drunk out of my skull, but even I know you don't jump into a river to save someone floating face down!

It's not a man, it's a mask!

BRIDGE OVER TROUBLED WHITE WATER

MAX KORN

THE ART OF JERRY LEWIS

This picture's underlying theme was that people use masks to hide their true, inner selves!

You mean this movie had a message?

Yeah! Didn't you get it?

The only message I got was a wake-up call when the movie was over!

EAT AT HANKS

What an exhausting night I had! I've got to get rid of this mask!

It's nice that Stanley treats me like a confidant! But if I'm so important to him how come he never once in this entire movie takes me out for a walk? Another couple more minutes of this shmoozing and I'm going to explode!

BOINNG!!

I've got a great idea for a contest! We'll give a prize to anyone who can remember what the story of this movie is, ten minutes after he sees it!

Throw the mask away! You don't need it!

You mean you like me just the way I am?

Not really! But with some great special effects, maybe your regular face could look as normal as anyone else's!

So you really threw the mask away, Jim?

But not so far that we can't retrieve it for the sequel!

Here are some clips from Jim's last movie! I guess Warners felt that they made so much money with one schmuck in Ace Ventura, they'd do twice as well with two in Dumb And Dumber!

Hey Larry, don't knock it! This movie is currently being used by Clinton administration appointees as a training film!

Some woman lost this attache case! I don't want her to get in trouble!

How's she going to get in trouble?

By violating the contract that authorizes only the baggage handlers to lose luggage!

Let's go to Colorado!

Okay! But don't bring your partners along!

Which partners?

The other Stooges, Curley and Larry!

SNOW OWL BENEFIT

I know that act-ress!

Sure you do! It's Teri Garr! She had a small part in the film! Her agent said it would be a big career move for her!

He just didn't say in which direction!

Jim, the comedy in this movie is about as subtle as a stain in a toilet bowl! And almost as amusing! I guess you're not concerned about "political correctness" and how offen-sive it must be to some people that you make fun of those with sub-normal intelligence!

At fifteen million dollars per picture, I guess I'm not!

We'll take a break and be right back! No clicking!

Jim, honey! You were fabulous! What can I say? Is this a guy or is this a guy?

I'd say he was ..

Blow it out your rear window, Hank! I'm talking to Jimbo!

I just heard that Carrey's doing the Leno and Letterman shows next week! His agent promised me that we had an exclusive for the entire month! That double crosser!

What do you want me to do?

Get rid of that rubber-faced bastard! We're not doing any promos for the competition!

But we have a half hour more to go! What am I supposed to do for thirty minutes?

Abuse Hank! What else is a sidekick good for?

We're back! Jim had to run, so I thought we could use the time to get better acquainted with Hank Kingsley! That'll show you the kind of real life stupidity that I have to put up with every night!

Thanks, Larry! God, I love this guy!
